

- Read this part of a report introduction and answer the following question:-

The research examined 105 samples of brain tissues from five people who had died of Alzheimer, and two people who had died from other causes. It is found that while healthy men taking drugs to lower their blood cholesterol levels were less likely to die of heart attacks than others.

It is suggested to apply the results of this report in different fields to warn people from the harm effects of these diseases.

1- What is the suitable aim of the writer for this report?

To investigate the effects of taking drugs and blood cholesterol levels

2- What methods of research may the author used in this report?

Experimental

3- What kind of report this one?

Scientific

3- What is the type of conclusion suitable for this report?

Recommendation

6- Write a suitable title for this research.

The effects of taking drugs and blood cholesterol levels

-Read the following passage and answer the following:-

The importance of building sound infrastructure بنية تحتية for creating and maintaining a competitive edge تنافسية for the Egyptian industrial sector الصناعة is unquestionable غير قابل للجدل. Providing high quality infrastructure will be the gate for crowding in more private investments استثمار خاص in the industrial sector. However, it is not just the physical availability of infrastructure that matters, but also its costs, quality, and accessibility.

The researcher of the current study depends on some procedures to achieve his purpose of describing the case of Egyptian industrial sector. By meeting some of businessmen رجال أعمال to have a clear idea. Some other businessmen filled a sheet of questions about the current case in Egypt.

1- What kinds of reports this one?

(~~Informative~~- feasibility- scientific- manuals) give reason.

Because the writer seeks to give full analysis about his topic.

2- What is the suitable aim of the writer for this report?

describing the case of Egyptian industrial sector

3- What methods of research may the author used in this report?

(Comparative- ~~Descriptive~~- instructive- Experimental) why?

depends on some procedures to achieve his purpose of describing the case of Egyptian industrial sector.

4- What type of conclusion should the author write at last?

Recommendation